The following communication was submitted to council.

Alliance O. March 16th 1914
 To the Honorable President, Members of the Council of Alliance O.

As citizens owning property in the vicinity of your Sewerage Disposal we beg leave to call your attention to the offensive stench that we have to put up with a good part of the time during the summer months. The conditions are such that unless they are remedied in such a way as to give us relief it will be necessary for us to take action to secure the same -
