Petition from Property owners on Broadway.

The following Petition was presented to the Council and read.

Gentlemen: When the Petition for the improvement of Broadway st between South Webb and Arch avenues was presented for our Signatures we were assured that said improvement complete would cost not to exceed Two dollars & fifty cents per foot. As the necessary signatures were obtained on the strength of this statement, we feel that the cost of said improvement should not exceed this sum if it can be avoided, and would therfore respectfully request that the bid of Mr John Duffy, for the Waynesburgh Block, with Cement filler be accepted, and the work pushed to completion with as little delay as possible.
